Player Notes: PGA director of Instruction at Trump National Golf Club in Colts Neck, N.J. . . Captured the 2009 Senior PGA Professional National Championship by a record 72-hole total of 18-under par 270. . . Finished tied for 16th to become the Low PGA Club Professional in the 2008 Senior PGA Championship at Oak Hill Country Club. Shared the 54-hole lead in just his second-ever appearance in the Championship. Britton had missed the cut in the 2007 Senior PGA Championship, which was his only appearance in any Champions Tour event. . . Tied for eighth in the 2008 Senior PGA Professional National Championship, tied for third in 2007, and tied for eighth in 2006. . . Winner, 2005, '06 New Jersey PGA Section Championship, 2006 New Jersey Senior Section Champion, 2006 New Jersey Senior Open, 2006 Metropolitan Senior Open Championship, believed to be the first player to win all three in the same year in the Section. . . 2006 New Jersey PGA Senior Player of the Year. . . Began his golf career when he used to sneak under the fence at a public course near his home in Staten Island, N.Y. . . From 1983 through 1987, Britton struggled and did not play on Tour in 1986. He regained his playing card in 1987, but poor season forced him back to Q-School to regain his exempt status for 1988. Regained his confidence in 1988 and in 1989 enjoyed his best year, capped by a four-stroke victory in the Centel Classic. . . His strong play continued in 1990 and gained national attention with his performances in the Masters and the PGA Championship. He tied for seventh in the Masters and was fourth at the PGA Championship at Shoal Creek. . . Played full-time on the PGA Tour between 1982 and 1996. He has played a total of 419 PGA Tour events, making 222 cuts. Has 23 top-10 finishes, with one victory at the 1989 Centel Classic.
