Port St. Lucie, Fla.

Defending Champion: Frank Bensel, Purchase, N.Y.

Prize Money and Prizes A purse of $100,000 will be distributed to the 2011 field of 126 competitors. The 2011 Callaway Golf PGA Assistant Champion will receive a first-place check of $9,000.

Method of Play Stroke play, 18 holes daily. The field will be cut to the low 70 players and ties following the second round of play. In the event of a tie for first place after 72 holes, there will be a hole-by-hole playoff.

Rules and Regulations The Rules of Golf, which govern play, are determined by the United States Golf Association and applied by the PGA of America Rules Committee.

Eligibility PGA assistant professionals (A-8 membership classification) and all registered apprentices may attempt to earn berths through their local PGA Sections. The final field is comprised of the 41 PGA Section assistant champions and the defending champion, if he is eligible.

Champion Benefits The 2011 Callaway Golf PGA Assistant Champion, if eligible, will earn a berth in the 2012 PGA Professional National Championship. In addition, the top four finishers and ties will earn a berth in the 2012 Callaway Golf PGA Assistant Championship.

Finally, the top 10 finishers and ties earn a berth into the first stage of the 2012 PGA Tour Qualifying School.

Championship History

For the past 34 years, the PGA Assistant Championship has marked a tradition of excellence in bringing together some of the most talented players in The PGA of America as well as being models of the caliber of members who make up the world's largest working sports organization.

For the first 14 years of its existence, the Championship was hosted by Thorny Lea Golf Club in Brockton, Mass, developing into one of The PGA's most popular events.

From 1991 to 1994, the Championship was hosted at PGA West, and contested on the Jack Nicklaus Private Course in La Quinta, Calif. In addition, the Championship was expanded from 54 to 72 holes. In 2004, the Championship expanded to 120 contestants, who compete for a total purse of $100,000.

In 2009, Callaway Golf became the title sponsor of the Championship.

Past competitors or champions who have gone on to careers on the PGA Tour and Nationwide Tour include: Loren Roberts (Champion, 1979), Fred Funk (Champion, 1984), Rich Beem (third, 1998), Jeff Freeman (T-7, 1998), Robert Thompson (Champion, 1986) and Webb Heintzelman (Champion, 1988).
