

PGA of America Scholarships

There are several scholarship programs that are supported by The PGA of America and the PGA Foundation. Each year more than $500,000 is awarded to approximately 300 deserving college students. Over the past three decades, The PGA of America has helped approximately 3,300 students while contributing approximately $6.1 million in scholarships.

■ Chip Beck/PGA Evans Scholarship

The Chip Beck/PGA Evans Scholarship was established in 1994, three years after Beck became the second player in history to record a 59 in a PGA Tour-sanctioned event. The Evans Scholarship Program, founded in 1930, honors golf great Chick Evans. The program, which was begun for caddies who seek a college education, has provided college scholarships to more than 10,000 students, 850 of whom currently attend 19 universities nationwide. Each year the Chip Beck/PGA Evans scholar is awarded $12,500, and 17 scholars have received a total of $212,500 since the scholarship was established. This year's recipient is:

2010-11 Sarah Norris of Birmingham, Mich. (University of Michigan)

■ PGA Golf Management University Diversity Scholarships

The PGA of America, through The PGA Foundation, provides annual scholarship grants totaling $60,000 to 20 accredited PGA Golf Management Universities, to assist 67 female and minority students. A total of $621,000 in scholarships has been awarded since the program's inception.
