White helped mentor Perry. . .Perry could not make the New Smyrna freshman golf team, and his grandfather passed away in 1986, never witnessing the rapid climb that his grandson would make in golf. Perry attended the University of North Florida and could not make the golf team in two attempts. He transferred to Mississippi State University, where he did not make that team and graduated from the Professional Golf Management Program in 1996. Perry needed two attempts to pass the Playing Ability Test. His breakthrough year was 1998. After competing on the Hooters Tour against the likes of Chad Campbell, Zach Johnson and Bill Lunde, Perry found that his game would hold up at that level. . .His national award follow former North Florida PGA member Brett Upper (1990), then of Clearwater, Fla.
