Player Notes: Langer started golf at age nine, as a caddie in Anhausen ... Spent the next seven years practicing and playing as much golf as he could between caddie duties. At age 15 he got a job as an assistant pro at the Munich Golf and Country Club ... Joined the European Tour at age 18, winning for the first time in 1980 at the Dunlop Masters. In 1981 he led the Order of Merit and won three times, including the German Open, where he was the first native to win in the event's 70-year history ... After 1985 he split his time between Europe and the U.S., having his best year on the PGA Tour in '85 with wins at the Masters and the Heritage Classic seven days later ... Czech-born father settled in Bavaria after jumping a Russian prisoner of war train bound for Siberia ... Langer has suffered from and conquered the yips on three occasions in his career ... 1996 was the first year since 1980 that Langer failed to win a golf tournament ... Captain of the victorious 2004 European Ryder Cup team ... A member of 10 European Ryder Cup teams (1981, '83, '85, '87, '89, '91, '93, '95, '97 and 2002) ... Langer was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 2002, shortly before claiming his 42nd title on the European Tour when he tied with Colin Montgomerie for the Volvo Masters Andalucia at Club de Golf Valderrama, following a superb final round of 67, becoming the only player in Tour history to share two events following a similar play-off experience with Seve Ballesteros in 1986 when the Trophee Lancome was abandoned due to darkness.

Player Notes: Lehman started playing golf at age five in a small farm town, north of Minneapolis. He was a walk-on at the University of Minnesota, earning his tour card after college in 1983. He played the PGA Tour for three years (1983- $9,413 rank 183rd, 1984-$9,382 rank 184th and 1985-$20,232 rank 158th), returning to Q-School after every season. Unable to get back on the PGA Tour for the 1986 season, Lehman was forced to play in Asia and South Africa and in any mini-tour events he could qualify for in the United States ... Lehman's game finally started showing stronger promise in 1990 and '91, when he was able to play regularly on the Ben Hogan (now Buy.Com) Tour, winning four tournaments, three of them in '91, the year he was Hogan leading money winner with $141,934, thereby securing his PGA Tour card for 1992. He had nine top 10s in '92, six more in '93, and had finished third, and then second, at the Masters before he finally broke through with his first win. Lehman won the 1994 Memorial Tournament with four rounds of 67. His best year was 1996, when he won the British Open at Lytham and the Tour Championship at Southern Hills; he also swept the year-end honors, winning the Vardon Trophy, the money list and Player of the Year. In April 1997 he was, for one week, the number one ranked player in the world. He injured his shoulder at the 1998 British Open, requiring surgery in Nov. of that year. Has made a successful return from the shoulder surgery ... Member of the 1995, '97 and '99 Ryder Cup Team ... Member of 1994, '96 and 2000 President Cup Team. Will lead the American team in the 2006 Ryder Cup in Ireland.

Player Notes: Famed for his trick-shots, showed he should be taken seriously on the course when he finished runner-up to Bertus Smit in the Ryder Cup Wales Seniors Open in 2009 to record his best performance in three years on the Senior Tour. That helped him to 13th on the Order of Merit, after finishing 22nd in both of his first two campaigns. Pulled off the biggest win of his career when he defeated former European Tour player Emilio Rodriguez in a play-off to win the Qualifying School in Portugal at his first attempt in 2006. Led from round two and finished the 72 holes with a nine under par aggregate of 275, before edging out Rodriguez with a birdie at the second extra hole. It was also the first time playing in Europe for the Sydney club professional, whose prior tournament wins had been confined to Australia. Came close to victory in 2007, finishing third in both The Midas English Seniors Open and the OKI Castellón Open de España Senior. PGA PGA European Tour Victories: 3 - 1993 Turespana Masters - Open de Andalucia, 1995 DHL Jersey Open, Volvo PGA Championship

Player Notes: Joins the Senior Tour upon turning 50 in March where he will look to build on a European Tour career that yielded three victories, the highlight of which was the 2001 PGA Championship when he produced the performance of his life to edge out Angel Cabrera and Nick Faldo, before remarking: 'I think my victory is a testament to the strength and depth of The European Tour.' Born in Bolton, Lancashire, but raised in Edinburgh. Won the English Amateur Championship in 1982 but, after many years living in Scotland, was eventually given status as a Scot. Won all four games in 1983 Walker Cup and won Qualifying School later that year. Fought a two year battle with energy sapping illness, ME (Myalgic Encephalomyelitis) but returned to win twice in the nineties.

Player Notes: He started to play the game at age 13 after his family moved to a house in California on a golf course. He would slip onto the course and was quickly hooked on the game. As a freshman at Mission Viejo High School he made the golf team and in his junior year the team won the state championship. He earned a scholarship to Long Beach State and was an all-American in 1979. O'Meara won the California State Amateur that year, defeating Lennie Clements in the finals. O'Meara also won Mexican Amateur, defeating Gary Hallberg the last day. But his biggest victory in 1979 came at the U.S. Amateur in Cleveland when he beat defending champion John Cook in the finals. He turned professional the next year and was the 1981 PGA Tour Rookie-of-the-Year. Between 1984 and 1992 he was in the top 30 in money earnings. With his win in the 1994 Argentine Open, he became the fifth player to win in the U.S., Europe, Japan, Australia and South America (the others are Gary Player, David Graham, Hale Irwin and Bernhard Langer) ... Member 1985, '89, '91, '97 and '99 Ryder Cup team ... Member of 1996 and '98 Presidents Cup team.

★ Home: Oxbow, N.D.

★ College: Southern Methodist University (1977)

★ Turned Professional: 1977 & 2010

Player Notes: An insurance agent with a sterling amateur golf career, Podolak qualified to play in the Allianz Championship in February. . Podolak earned his spot in that tournament by qualifying for an exemption offered to the more than 100,000 insurance agents that offer Allianz products. He declared himself a professional prior to the Championship, which was the second time he had turned professional in his career, the other coming in 1977, when he competed in area pro-ams for three years before being reinstated as an amateur ... Podolak met the agent qualification standards for the Allianz Championship by satisfying three criteria: the agent must be over 50 years old, must have a scratch handicap or better and must shoot a one-round score of 1-under par or better at The Old Course at Broken Sound. Podolak posted a 1-under-par 71 when he played The Old Course at Broken Sound in Dec. 2009. In playing the 2010 Allianz Championship shot 75-71-73 and finished T-66.

Podolak has won 21 individual state amateur golf titles in North Dakota and won the 1984 U.S. Mid-Amateur Championship for the 25-and-older age bracket. Competed on the 1985 Walker Cup team and the 1986 Masters ... Was the No. 1 alternate, but missed earning a spot in the 1977 PGA Tour Qualifying School ... Serves as an assistant girls' golf coach at Kindred (N.D.) High School, which his two daughters attend... Is a second cousin to former Kansas City Chiefs and University of Iowa star football player, Ed Podolak ... Captured the 2000 Trans-Mississippi Amateur Championship ... Won the 2004 North Dakota Open ... Competed in 11 U.S. Amateur Championships, competing in the final 16 of match play in 1985 and 1989 ... Opened his own insurance agency, Podolak and Associates, in 1982 in Fargo, N.D.

He is playing in his first Senior PGA Championship

Player Notes: Roberts did not start to play golf seriously until he was 16 years old. In high school he played a lot of tennis and baseball until his golf coach convinced him to concentrate on golf ... After high school, Roberts attended Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo, where he played varsity golf for two years before the school dropped its golf program. He then turned professional and worked as an assistant at the San Luis Obispo Country Club ... Credited his victory in the 1979 FootJoy PGA Assistant Professional Championship in jump-starting his career ... Overall, Roberts has been to Q-school six times, succeeding three of those times ... Regarded as one of the hardest workers on tour, as well as one of the best putters, he has been in the top 100 of the money list every year since 1988. Prior to his win in the 1994 Nestle Invitational, he was the leading money-winner on the PGA Tour without a victory. Almost pulled a double victory in '94 when he lost in the playoff for the U.S. Open. He is nicknamed "Boss of the Moss" for his great putting skills. He's had problems with a bulging disc in his back the last several years ... Missed the Masters in 1998 when he broke ribs while sneezing ... Member of 1995 Ryder Cup Team at Oak Hill Country Club ... Member of 1994 and 2000 Presidents Cup Team.

Wins around the World: 1983, '92, '94, '95 & '97 Argentine PGA Championship, 1984 Chile Open, 1986 Chile Open, 1989 Argentine Open, Player Notes: Turned 50 on July 17, 2004, and just five days later made an impressive European Seniors Tour debut at The Senior British Open Championship, where he finished joint second. Sealed his first Seniors Tour success at Wentworth Club in Aug. 2005 when he romped to an eight shot victory in the Travis Perkins Senior Masters. Became the third oldest winner on The European Tour behind Des Smyth and Neil Coles when, just three days before his 48th birthday, he won The 2002 Barclays Scottish Open at Loch Lomond, his eighth European Tour title. Known as 'El Gato' - The Cat - because of the way he stealthily stalks and overcomes opponents. Son of a club professional in Cordoba, where he still lives, he won his US Tour card in 1994 but returned after only one season to rejoin his many friends in Europe. Close friend of fellow Argentine, Angel Cabrera, with whom he finished second in the WGC - World Cup in their native country in Dec. 2000. Used his own money to help sponsor Cabrera on The European Tour - and was rewarded when his protégé won the 2001 Open de Argentina and followed that with victory in the 2002 Benson and Hedges International Open. Attributed his success to improved concentration, thanks to the study of an Indian yoga technique, Rhami Hayat.

In a truly outstanding four-week stretch last summer, the charismatic Argentine finished runner-up at The Senior British Open Championship, retained the Wentworth Senior Masters title and captured his first Senior Major Championship at the JELD-WEN Tradition on the US Champions Tour. Produced some brilliant golf in difficult conditions at The Westin Turnberry Resort that included a second round of seven under par 63, before eventually losing in a play-off to Loren Roberts. Was not denied for long, however, as the following week he successfully defended the Wentworth Senior Masters at Wentworth Club, closing in two under par 70 to finish two clear of Sam Torrance and Horacio Carbonetti. A fortnight later found him in another play-off but this time emerged triumphant, beating American Lonnie Nielsen to the final Major of the US Champions Tour season - a victory that ultimately saw him named US Champions Tour Rookie of the Year.

European Seniors Tour Victories: 3 - 2010 The Aberdeen Brunei Senior Masters, Chang Thailand Senior Masters & Berenberg Bank Masters

Other Victories: 1985 Australian Amateur Championship (a); 1985 Putra Cup (individual and team - a); 1992 Thailand Open; 1998 Mercuries Masters, Taiwan, 2003 Singha Classic, Thailand, 2004 Chevrolet Championship, Thailand, 2006 Singha Masters, Thailand.

Player Notes: Boonchu grew up playing golf at the Royal Army Course and has helped young golfers, including Thaworn Wiratchant, along the way. Initially started his sporting career in kick-boxing but was knocked out cold in his third bout and quit the game. Possesses a classic golf swing. When he retires, he says he will devote time developing junior golf and possibly play on the US Champions Tour. He opened up a restaurant in Bangkok in 2003.

Widely respected by his fellow professionals, Thailand's Boonchu Ruangkit is one of Asia's greatest ever players and golfing ambassadors. Proved that old is gold when he won the Thailand Open in 2004 en route to a glorious season where he posted six top-10s, including two runner-up finishes. In 2006, Boonchu managed a tied 21st place finish at the Brunei Open. Boonchu then broke the deadlock in his third attempt at the Champions Tour when he finished on top at the Champions Tour Qualifying School. Posted back-to-back sixth place finish in the Philippine Open and Maekung Open in 2005. Made a winning debut at the Visa Dynasty Cup in China in 2005. Attempted to qualify for the US Champions (Seniors) Tour as well but missed out on the first stage. Hit the opening drive on the former Asian PGA circuit in 1995 and again on the newly-formed Asian Tour in 2004 at the Thailand Open. Winning his second Thailand Open title, the first was in 1992, made him the oldest winner in Asia at the age of 47 then. Produced three top-10s in 2003, including a tied fourth finish at the Volvo Masters of Asia. Won the Singha Classic, a Thai Tour event in 2003. Enjoyed an impressive amateur career. Won the 1985 Australian Amateur Championship and Putra Cup (team and individual) that same year.

He almost made history on his native continent in 2009 by becoming the oldest winner in the history of the Asian Tour but was preceded to the Brunei Open title by Australian Darren Beck. However his entry into the history books was only delayed until the beginning of the 2010 season when he began competing on the European Senior Tour. There, with victories in Brunei, Thailand and South Africa, he became the first player since Tommy Horton in 1997 to win three consecutive tournaments on the Senior circuit and also became the quickest player to achieve three victories, doing so in seven tournament appearances which was one fewer than the previous record holder, Brian Huggett. Furthermore, during his victory in the Chang Thailand Senior Masters, his 21 under par total of 195 was not only the lowest 54 hole score to par in the history of the European Senior Tour, his 11 stroke victory over his nearest challenger was also the greatest recorded for a 54 hole event since the Senior Tour began in 1992.

Was the medalist at the 2006 Champions Tour National Qualifying tournament.

Player Notes: Started to play golf at the age of four when his family got him started.

Did not think about turning professional until after his senior year at Florida State when he won the Metro Conference title ... Earned his Tour card in fall of 1982, but a poor 1983 (171st on money list) forced him back to Q-school ... Regained his tour card in 1984 and won the 1985 Tallahassee Open when it was part of the Tournament Players Series ... Has finished in the top 100 of the money list since 1985 ... In 1987, lost the Tournament Players Championship in a three-hole playoff with Sandy Lyle, finished the year winning $335,590 (ranked 27th) ... In 1988, shot a final-round 65 to win the PGA Championship by three strokes over Paul Azinger, this carried him to his fourth best season to date, winning $503,321 (ranked 18th) ... Before his win in the 1998 Tucson Classic, Sluman had won more money than anybody else in the 90s, without a win.

Has been a Chicago Bulls season ticketholder since 1996 ... Loves Formula One auto racing ... Big fan of the Florida State Seminoles, Chicago Bears and Chicago Cubs ... Serious wine collector, owns about 2,000 bottles, dating back to 1957 ... Co-owner with Dudley Hart of Lakeshore GC in Rochester, NY, a course he played regularly growing up ... Good friend of 1986 Indianapolis 500 winner Bobby Rahal.

European Senior Tour Victories:1 - 2009 Ryder Cup Wales Seniors Open

Player Notes: Won an emotional maiden title in the 2009 Ryder Cup Wales Seniors Open, denying Ian Woosnam a popular home victory, just three years after a stroke left him partially sighted in his right eye. Carded a final round 69 at Royal Porthcawl having opened with a round of 74. Despite finishing tied second in the 2008 Jersey Seniors Classic, he finished the season just outside the top 50 on the Order of Merit meaning a return to Qualifying School where he finished second to regain his card. Turned professional in 2000, following a highly successful amateur career in his native South Africa, and finished second at the 2005 European Senior Tour Qualifying School Finals in Portugal.

He is playing in his first Senior PGA Championship

Champions Tour Victories: 2 - 2005 SBC Classic, Liberty Mutual Legends Of Golf.

European Senior Tour Victories: 2 - 2007 Wentworth Senior Masters, 2005 Arcapita Seniors Tour Championship

Player Notes: A strong end to the 2009 campaign saw the popular Irishman record three consecutive top ten finishes to claim 15th place in the Order of Merit in his first full season back in Europe after splitting his schedule with the US Champions Tour for six years. Just missed out on a sentimental home victory in 2008 when he finished runner up to Juan Quiros at the Irish Seniors Open. Despite admitting he was struggling with his form, Smyth claimed a thrilling victory at the 2007 Wentworth Senior Masters to continue a great summer of golf for the Irish, after Padraig Harrington's Open win. It was Smyth's first win since 2005 when he captured his first Senior titles, one on the European Senior Tour and two in America. Won the SBC Classic and the Liberty Mutual Legends of Golf on the Champions Tour, where he closed out the year in 10th place on the money list, and rounded off an unforgettable season by winning the Arcapita Seniors Tour Championship in Bahrain to finish third on the 2005 European Senior Tour Order of Merit. Also lost a play-off to Tom Watson in The 2005 Senior Open Championship, presented by Aberdeen Asset Management, at Royal Aberdeen Golf Club. In Oct. 2005, underwent an emergency operation after a routine check-up revealed a serious problem with the arteries supplying blood to his heart. Went under the knife that evening, but was back on the golf course five days later. Still holds the record as the oldest winner on The European Tour when, during his 28th consecutive season in 2001, he won the Madeira Island Open at the age of 48 years and 34 days.

1990 European Tour Summary: Tournaments entered - 27; in money - 22; top-10 finishes - 3; scoring average 71.79 (ranked 40th); earnings - £105,877 (ranked 33rd); best finish - 3rd Desert Classic and T-3rd Austrian open.

European Senior Tour Victories: 2010 Mauritius Commercial Bank Open

Player Notes: After several narrow misses, eventually captured his maiden title at the start of his sixth season on the Senior Tour with victory in the first event of 2010, the inaugural Mauritius Commercial Bank Open, finishing one stroke clear of former Ryder Cup player Gordon J Brand. That capped a remarkable turnaround after only gaining his 2009 card via the Qualifying School and finishing 31st on the Order of Merit. Prior to Mauritius he missed out on a maiden victory at the 2007 AIB Irish Seniors Open, when he finished runner up to Costantino Rocca, and the European Senior Masters at Woburn in 2006 when he led going into the final round before finishing third behind two former Ryder Cup Captains, Sam Torrance and the winner, Mark James. Became a professional golfer in 1974 after growing up heavily involved in football. His late father, Keith, was the manager of Ajax in Japanese Tour Victories: 7 - 1987 & '88 Kyushu Open, 1989 NST Niigata Open, 1990 Kyushi Open, 1994 Mitsubishi Gallant, 1995 PGA Match Play, 2003 JCB Classic Sendai.

Player Notes: First Japanese professional to enter European Tour Qualifying School, graduated 1996. Moved up from 80th in Volvo Order of Merit to 47th in second season in Europe. Ended 1999 in 66th place, but came close to becoming the first Japanese golfer to win since Isao Aoki in the European Open at Sunningdale in 1983 when challenging for The Sarazen World Open. Eventually had to settle for share of second place behind Thomas Bjorn. Arrived with strong credentials as Japanese World Cup player and winner of 1994 Mitsubishi Gallant Open and 1995 Japan Match Play title. Defeated Open champion Paul Lawrie in dramatic style in the Alfred Dunhill Cup at St. Andrews in 1999 - making a birdie three on the first extra hole after Lawrie had holed out for an eagle two at the 18th. In his debut tournament on the Japan Senior Tour in 2004 he finished in second place. His best year was 1995, when he earned ¥86,693,831, which placed him 5th on the Japan Tour Money List.

PGA PGA European Tour Victories: 22 - 1976 Piccadilly Medal, Martini International, 1981 Irish Open, 1982 Spanish Open, Portuguese Open, 1983 Scandinavian Enterprise Open, Portuguese Open, 1984 Tunisian Open, Benson & Hedges International, Sanyo Open, 1985 Monte Carlo Open, 1987 Italian Open, 1990 German Masters, 1991 Jersey European Airways Open, 1993 Kronenbourg Open, Heineken Open Catalonia, Scottish PGA Championship, Honda Open, 1995 Italian Open, Irish Open, Collingtree British Masters, 1998 Peugeot Open de France.

European Seniors Victories: 11 - 2004 Travis Perkins Senior Masters, 2005 Bendinat London Seniors Masters, De Vere PGA Seniors Championship & Irvine Whitlock Seniors Classic, 2006 Sharp Italian Seniors Open, AIB Irish Senior Open, PGA Seniors Championship & Charles Church Scottish Seniors Open, 2007 Bendinat London Seniors Masters, 2008 Oki Castellon Open Espana, 2009 DGM Barbados Open

Player Notes: Won the 2009 European Senior Tour Order of Merit with a third place finish at the season-ending OKI Castellon Senior Tour Championship. That was good enough to see him leapfrog Ian Woosnam at the top of the Order of Merit to secure the third John Jacobs Trophy of his Senior Tour Career. Victory in the 2009 DGM Barbados Open, the 11th Senior Tour win of his career, was the highlight of a season that yielded a further five top six finishes, including fifth spot at the Senior Open Championship presented by MasterCard over his home course of Sunningdale. His resurgence following an arm injury that troubled him for two seasons can be traced back to the final event of 2008 when he won the OKI Castellón Open España – Senior Tour Championship. That win moved him up to eighth in the Order of Merit and took him past the €1million career earnings mark on the Senior Tour. It also ensured he maintained his record of winning at least one title in each of the full seasons he has played on the Senior Tour, which he continued in 2009. His ninth Senior Tour victory, in the 2007 Bendinat London Seniors Masters, was all the sweeter given that son Daniel had only taken on his caddie duties four weeks previously. Topped the Order of Merit for the second year in succession in 2006 after a hugely impressive season, during which he notched four victories and four runner-up finishes en route to earnings of €347,525. Captained the European Ryder Cup Team to victory in The Ryder Cup at The Belfry in 2002, 17 years after holing the winning putt at the same venue which ended a 28 year drought in the event. An early pioneer of the broom handle putter, was awarded an MBE in 1996 for services to golf and the OBE in the 2003 New Year Honors List for his inspired Captaincy of Europe's Ryder Cup Team. Won 21 times in a glittering European Tour career and won the team event at the 2003 Dunhill Links championship at St Andrews in partnership with his son Daniel.

★ He was a member of the 1981, '83, '85, '87, '89, '91, '93 & '95 Ryder Cup Team and will be toasted forever as the man who holed the winning putt in the Ryder Cup at Belfry in 1985.

★ He was also the first big name pro on the European Tour to switch to the 48 inch "broom handle" putter after problems putting in 1988. Has used it every year since
